

and make a trip to California, the former home of the baroness, and where he coast, and remain there until November sador will accompany them. The Am-

British Ambassador and go West, visiting the two conventions in June and July, at no remote point from Washington, that he may be within easy reach.

first going to Chicago, where they will attend the convention. The embassy wi debut in society several years ago.

The Mexican Ambassador and Mme.

Mexican minister to Cuba, and his family

Miss Cannon, daughter of the Speake of the House, will go to her home in Illi-nois as soon as Congress adjourns, and Lady Isabella Howard, wife of the

James have a cottage at Seal Harbor,

Mrs. James will go there with their children on May 22, and Col. James will

The Second Secretary of the British

Mme. Calderon and Miss Calderon, wife and daughter of the Bolivian Minister, will go abroad for the summer, sailing

this month, after another week in Ralti

The Minister from Haiti and Mme

The First Secretary of the Siamese Legation and Mrs. Edward Loftus will sum-

Of Known Quality

OUR stocks of Precious Gems, Artistic Jewellery, Sterling

Silverware, Cut Glass, &c., in-wedding gifts.

join her there after the conventions,

Col. and Mrs. James.

late in the summer will go abroad.

The Austrian Ambassador and Baroness

ASHINGTON'S late season is one of the strongest and mer in England. Mrs. Bryce will accommost interesting in years. The first real breaking up 60. first real breaking up ocweek, when a large number who are important factors in the social gayeties took their departure for the number of the diplomats. side of the world. On the other hand, a large number of the smart folk are remaining late in the city, owing to the dampness in the country and the tar- baron, in Saxony. They will sail on May rying of Congress. The country home will be the popular spot for six weeks

The colony of distinguished New Yorkers in Washington grows apace, and next season will see such a change come over der if this really is Washington. The official circle is destined to grow more and more a circle of its own, apart from the residential society, due both to the influx of the winter residents from the bassador will follow the example of the the Congressional and the Archonides. which will bring the official people closer and closer together, and form for them season at Hot Springs, Va., will spend the summer at Bar Harbor, which is a a society almost sufficient unto them-selves. Of course, the higher officials and young daughter, little Baroness Mila. their families always will circulate closely about the White House and the family who occupies it, and within that circle always will be found the smart and Baroness Takahira. Wife of the Janalways will be found the smart and wealthy resident set; but these circles are growing so rapidly that there will are growing so rapidly that there will decide on his summer house hour.

Baroness Takahira, wife of the Japready opened their home at Tuxedo. Tready opened their home at Tuxedo. Where they will spend several months, and then make a trip North on their day afternoon complimentary to her guest. necessarily be a limit placed. Therefore, Ambassador will decide on his summer the atmosphere of the social life of the plans. They will probably take a cottage National Capital is slowly but surely ess and her children, whether grown up or under age. There have been no more ter. They will not return to the United States until October.

The Italian Ambassador and Baroness or under age. There have been no more faithful attendants at any club meetings des Planches will not return to Italy for in the last two winters than at the the summer, but will establish the em-Monday Morning Music Club, which is bassy in one of the summer resorts here. formed of women in the social life, any one bordering on the professional having been barred out. Their regular attendance at rehearsals, their interest in the work of the summer resorts here, just which one is not yet decided, but it will more than likely be Manchester-bythe-Sea, where they spent the first summer they were in this country. The Ambassador will attend the convention in the music they hear and give, and the Chicago.

progress they have made in their own The French Ambassador and Mme. work have won respect and admiration Jusserand, true to their custom, will go to their home in France about June 26. from the loudest claimant "that social leaders had no time for serious things."

The music circle in smart society has be established again in Newport, with had an important and interesting addition M. des Portes de la Fosse, counselor of in Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, wife of the the embassy, as charge d'affaires. He former Ambassador to Germany, who is mow in the new home of the family in Twentieth street. She is not only a culti
verted singer and musician but a culti
des Portes will join him on this side later vated singer and musician, but a com- in the summer. They have a special poser of talent, who has attracted the fondness for the aristocratic seashore attention of such musicians as Fritz resort, where Mile, des Portes made her Kreisler and the Kneisels. One of Mrs. Townsend's compositions, a berceuse Creel, who returned to Mexico at the be for the violin, will be heard in Wash- ginnning of the lenten season, will reington next Friday evening at the concert main there indefinitely. The charge of the Western High School, when Mr. d'affaires, Senor Godoy, who is also the Fitzhugh Coyle Goldsborough, a young violinist of attainment, will play it. The will stay in Washington until late, and then probably establish a summer berceuse was written first as a song, embassy at Atlantic City or one of the and so pleased the eminent violinist, Jersey coast resorts. They have spent Kreisler, that at his earnest request, several summers in this region. the distinguished composer arranged it for that instrument. This is only one of many songs and violin and plane numbers which have come from the brain of this busy society woman. Her "Serenade" Rustique" is another work which is sure counselor of the British Embassy, and to attract as much admiration and at. Mrs. Grant Watson, wife of the third tention as the berceuse.

The summer plans of the fashionable folk are occupying their attention, to the exclusion of all else save weddings. The annual exodus to Europe already has begun and promises to be as great as, if not greater, than for seasons. Men in official life are needed on this side for the many campaigns, and especially the one great gone to their foreign homes for the sumone, but they will be so occupied that their families, in many instances, will take the occasion to be on the other side of the world.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt and their family will go to their home at Oyster Bay early, to remain until the fall. The children will be with them, except Mount Desert, for the summer. Hon, for short visits among their friends. Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth (nee Roosevelt) will spend their summer in Ohio, Mrs. Longworth remaining with her husband until he is able to take some her husband until he is able to take some Embassy and Mrs. George Young will recreation, when they will go together to take a cottage in the close vicinity of the New England coast.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Root will spend their summer divided between the home of their daughter, Mrs. U. S. Grant, third, in Brookline, Mass., and more, their country place at Clinton, N. Y. They are always surrounded by their Leger have taken a cottage at Deer children, and this year will have an addi- Park, and will go early and remain tional son-in-law and daughter-in-law to

Mrs. Taft, wife of the Secretary of War, who is making a spring visit with her relatives and those of the Secretary in and about Cincinnati, will remain late in Washington and then go in the summer to Murray Bay, Canada, where they have had a cottage every year since their return from the Philippines. Miss Helen Taft, their only daughter, who is at Bryn Mawr at school, will come to Washington after school closes. She will not be graduated until next year

The Attorney General and Mrs. Bonaparte are in their country home, "Bella Vista," about fifteen miles from Baltimore. They will stay there until August, when they will make a month's visit in Lenox and several New England resorts. The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Metcalf are both in California, and Mrs. a summer place, and their younger son, Victor, is still far from well, and Mrs.

covered from her serious illness of last

GALT & BRO., Metcalf will keep her house open for The Postmaster General will stay late Established Over a Century at his departmental duties this year. Mrs. Meyer and their two daughters will spend Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers. the greater part of the summer in Ger-many, where Miss Alice Meyer will take 1107 Penna. Ave. the waters. She has never entirely re-

The family of the Minister from Costa 1895. Rica never go far from Washington, ummer. They will come back to this country in the late summer and go to their place at Hamilton, Mass. Nicaragua, and Mme. Corea, who was formerly Miss India Bell Fleming, a The British Ambassador, not having gone home last year, will spend this sumof next month. Mr. and Mrs. Bryce will their young daughter, they will remain make a trip West before sailing, and the there for the greater part of the hot ville King. Milton Goldsmith, Alfred Haas, Ambassador will be present at the Re-

The Swedish Minister and Mme. Lagerpublican convention, which will attract a The German Ambassador and Baroness young daughter, and will then select one of the mountain resorts for the summer is, and return here the middle of August

Mrs. James McMillan, widow of the enator from Michigan, will keep her father died years ago. Late in September they will go to the summer embassy, Washington home open until the end of May, when she and her granddaughter. Miss Jarvis, will go to Detroit for a visit which will be established on the Maine with their relatives. Later they will open Eagle Head, Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mrs. McMillan's summer place, and remain there until the late summer. Miss Jarvis The Brazilian Ambassador's wife and daughter, Mme, and Miss Nabuco, will go to Europe the first week in June, and emain for the summer, as they did last year. The several sons of the Ambasstaying late in Washington because of the wedding of Miss Edith Sanger, daughter of Gen. Sanger, to Mandeville Carlisle, at which Miss Jarvis will ac as a bridesmaid.

> Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, who had their plans to go abroad for months,

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley have al-

It is interesting to note the artistic atmospheres of the fashionable circles, when music, painting, all kinds of art influences, and the languages occupy a portion of the time of almost every hosters, and her children, whether grown up to the content of the co closed their Washington house, and, in fact, have given it up, preparatory to ocupying their new home, which will be completed by next fall. They will make short visit abroad, and then occupy their Newport home in July and August. jamson, W. Va.

The Admiral of the Navy and Mrs. Dewey have taken apartments in the Buena Vista Springs Hotel, at Buena Vista, Md., preferring mountain springs always to the seashore. They have spent a week in New York, returned to their home yesterday. year prefer to be a little nearer home.

The Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks will go at once to their home in Indianapolis, on the adjournment of Congress, and further than that Mrs. Fairbanks has made no plans. Mrs. Tim-mons, daughter of the Vice President, will join Lieut. Timmons, in Philadelphia, in June, where his vessel will be stationed during the summer.

Mrs. Arthur Lee is in Atlantic City with her children, previous to going to her father's country place at Elkins. W. Va., where she will be for the rest

Mrs. Elkins and Miss Katherine Elkins will go to the Senator's place at Elkins, Va., early in June. Gossip is persistent that the Duke d'Abruzzi, to whom Miss Elkins is believed to be engaged, for a visit, and that the wedding will positively take place here in the fall.

Mrs. Morgan-Hill and her daughter, Miss Diane Morgan-Hill, sailed early this month for their summer visit abroad.

Washington houses have remained open Mrs. Grant Watson, wife of the third longer this year than is usual. The proven secretary of the embassy, are both in Country Club and Chevy Chase Club places. England for the summer, and will be joined by Mr. Esme Howard and Mr. make life much more pleasant for the residents who wish to stay as long as Grant Watson, respectively, in the early possible at the seat of government. Suburban homes, too, are growing more The Naval Attache of the French Embassy and Mme. de Blanpre, the Naval Attache of the Russian Embassy and Mme. Nebolsine, the Military Attache of the German Embassy, and Baron Ambrozy, of the Austrian Embassy, have have the middle of September.

mer season. Capt. Livonius and Lieut. Commander de Blanpre will be in Cali-The Secretary of Commerce and Labor fornia for some time, attend the two con- last evening, in honor of the British Amions in the West, and join their fambassador and Mrs. James Bryce. The lies later in the summer.
Lieut. Col. James, military attache of other guests were the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. James R. Garfield, Mr. the British Embassy, and Hon. Mrs. Justice and Mrs. Harlan, Senator and Mrs. Bulkeley, Senator and Mrs. Clay, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson Clover, and Mr. and Mrs. McKelway, of residence, 1333 Massachusetts avenue Brooklyn, who are spending a few days southeast. Washington, on their way home from > Mrs. Newell and Miss Newell, of Cleve land, mother and sister of Mrs. Garfield, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, who have been in Washington for weeks, will west, will be at home Wednesday after return to their home early this week.

Senator and Mrs. Elkins have as their Mrs. Baker, of New York.

E. K. Goldsborough and her daughters he sea this year, to the mountains. They will probably spend the fall season at Oakland. Miss Julia Goldsborough will Wedding Gifts go to Atlantic City on Tuesday, to spend en days with relatives.

at Fort Ogelthorpe, Ga., visiting her week for Germany, and the Ambassador son-in-law and daughter. Lieut. and Mrs. Dallam, is being lavishly entertained there. On Friday evening she was given a brilliant reception by the Chickamaugua State. She was joined there yesterday clude many rare and beautiful by Mr. McLean, and they will remain week. On their return to New York, they seeking unusual and distinctive week. On their return to New York, the will stop in Washington for a few days.

Miss Dolly Curtis, sister of Senator Metcalf are both in California, and Mrs.

Metcalf will remain there until the fall.

Their home in Oakland is charming as

Their home in Oakland is charming as resterday morning for a week-end visit was assisted by Mrs. T. D. Ansberry, to Annapolis. They will be the guests of Mrs. L. White Busbey, and Mrs. Scott C. mmander and Mrs. O. B. Dodge, form- Bone. erly of Kansas, the former being now in charge of the improvement being made > Former Assistant Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Thomas Ryan were the broidered white mull over white silk.

>
> Mrs. Ansberry were pale blue cloth with guests of honor at a dinner on Friday white lace trimmings, and carried yellow tor Murdock, of Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan have been at the Ebbitt House for several weeks, and will remain another week before going on to Muscogee, Ind. T.

The Chinese Minister, Mr. Wu Ting-fang, will be the guest of Miss Janet Richards' Current History Class on Monday morning next at Rauscher's, and after Miss Richards' summary of current affairs Mr. Wu will tell the class why he became a vegetarian, also why he has not "left the water wagon." as erroneously reported. At the close of the lecture an opportunity will be afforded those present to meet Minister Wu. An interesting feature of the occasion will be the presence of about twenty members of Miss Richards' mer at East Point, Cape Ann, Mass., in- first "Current Topics Class," which was stead of spending their summer in Eng-land, as they usually do. organized in the drawing-rooms of Judge and Mrs. Job Barnard in the winter of usually taking a cottage in one of the suburbs or at some mountain point in at the Villa Flora Club on Thursday even-Maryland or Virginia. They will do this ing in honor of his twenty-first birthday senor Don Luis F. Corea, Minister from Messrs. M. Marx, Lew. Freirick, Joseph a Berberich, Louis Scholem, of New York; debutante of last year, will go to the country place of the latter's mother, which is the former country home of ex-President Cleveland, and, because of their young daughter they will remain Arthur Rosenberg, Milton Gundersheimer, of Baltimore; Alfred Raubitschek and crantz, who are well known in Newport. Phil Cohen, of New York; Sam Hoffman, have been in Sweden throughout this seaof Brooklyn; Gerald Rickard, Arthur D. n. They are expected to return here the end of this month, with their Herman, Sidney Sellnger, Leo Fishel, Milford Stern, Meyer Loeb, Morris Simon, Nathan Frank, Clarence Grosner, Ivan Herman, Harold Strauss, Maury Herman, Leon Strauss, Meyer Simons, Louis Lowenthal, Jerome Selinger, Henry Wolf, of New York; Earl Silverman, Edward B. McLean, A. L. Johnson, and Robert

Miss Edna Weyl entertained at bridge on Thursday afternoon at her residence, will then go abroad, and Mrs. McMillan's daughter. Lady Harrington, wife of the British Minister to Abyssinia, will come over for a visit to her mother, the first since her marriage, last summer. Mrs. McMillan and her granddaughter are McMillan and her granddaughter are staying late in Washington because of the Mrs. Adolph Weyl, Miss Helene Engel, Mrs. James C. Wheeler, 1912 H. Mrs. Adolph Weyl, Miss Helene Engel, and Miss Mae Harris.

Mrs. Fred Schwab, of Columbia road, Wednesday afternoon. The club prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Schwab, Mrs. Gus have taken a cottage at Newport, and Wallerstein, Mrs. Harry Kaufman, and will go there in June. Wieder, of St. the guests' prize by Mrs. Wieder, of St.

Mrs. F. Wieder, of St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, who Schwab, gowned in lavender crepe de will have Mrs. Minna Field Gibson with chine, received her guests, assisted by them for the remainder of this month, Mrs. Wieder, attired in white messaline

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont have ENGAGEMENTS-WEDDINGS field, Mass., announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Nelson Dale, Mr. Nathan Haines Mannakee, of Will-

Mrs. Richard Townsend and her daugh-

Mr. Richard Harding Davis, of New York, the novelist, who has been the Tenn., to their home, in York, Pa. guest for some days of Representative and Mrs. Brodhead, will be at the New Willard for a few days longer.

The engagement of Miss Nettie Wheeler Lewis, daughter of Mrs. William W. Lewis, of near Boyds, Md., to Mr. Daniel W. Baker, United States district attorney for the District of Columbia, who resides at Germantown, near Boyds, is an-

The wedding will take place about the stay. niddle of June.

Miss Wheeler is well known in Montgomery County, Md., and in Baltimore, whence her mother came to this section. will come to the United States this month | She has many relatives and friends in has returned to the city. Washington, where she visits a great deal of her time.

> Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont have returned to their Washington home, after having spent the past week at Newport and in New York, superintending im provements in their homes in those

Prof. Lennox, of the Catholic University, and Mrs. Lennox will sail on June 11, for Europe, to spend several the Interior, will leave late this month, Ohio, where, with her sons, she spends and Mrs. Straus entertained at dinner Falls Wednesday, postponed from Friday on account of rain.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. Murry entertained the Merrymakers' Club at her

The Merrymakers will give their last indoor dance of the season Tuesday at National Rifles' Armory.

Mrs. and Miss Tallmadge and Mrs. Henry Tallmadge, 1356 Irving street northnoon from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Baroness von Sternburg, wife of the ouse guests for the week-end, Mr., and German Ambassador, entertained at tea yesterday afternoon, as a farewell to Mme. Hebbinghaus, wife of the naval atot open their country place at Oak- tache of the embassy, who is soon to and, Md., this summer, but will spend leave Washington to accompany Com- about two months. he season at Bayhead, N. J., preferring mander Hebbinghaus to another post. They will make some visits in different localities in this country before sailing for home in July. The drawing rooms of the embassy were fragrant with spring blossoms. Miss Langham, sister of the Mrs. Donald McLean, president general baroness, who spends her winters here, f the National Society D. A. R., who is week for Germany, and the Ambassador

The Swiss Minister, Dr. Vogel, entertained a dinner company on Friday evenall ing in honor of the French Ambassador Chapter D. A. R., and met nearly all ing in honor of the French Ambassador the Daughters of that portion of the and Mme. Jusserand. Other guests were the Belgian Minister and Baroness Moncheur, Senator and Mrs. Crane, Reppieces that will interest those at Fort Oglethorpe until the end of this resentative and Mrs. Herbert Parsons, Mrs. Benedict, Mrs. Hobson, and Mr. Kroupensky, counselor of the Russian

The drawing-rooms, music-room, and Dutch tearoom were decorated with spring flowers and foliage. Mrs. Ramsay wore a gown of emKIMON NICOLAIDES

-for 24 years at 1205 F Street, desires to notify his friends and the public that he has purchased the entire stock of Edmund H. Brown (formerly Brown & Tolson) at 1409 H Street. The stock consists of a unique and interesting display of Antique Furniture, Curios, Sheffield Plate, Mirrors, Bric-a-Brac, Pictures, &c.—things that age and quaintness make valuable.

Art Objects That Are Different

—and will be appreciated by those who relish art and look for value.

In addition to the stock purchased from Edmund H. Brown I have secured several valuable collections of Antique Furniture, Silverware, Brass, Bronze and Copper Ornaments, Curios, Mirrors, Bric-a-Brac and the like.

Liberally reduced prices prevail throughout the stock, offering you an unusual opportunity to secure exceptional bargains.

Kimon Nicolaides, 1409 H St. N. W.

Beauties. Mrs. Bone wore yellow Liberty Mackall is the founder of this society,

The regular meeting of the Crittenton Wheel Club was held at the home of Mrs. James C. Wheeler, 1912 H street orthwest, on Thursday.

It was announced that Mrs. Evangeline Fallagher would leave the city to reside last week. entertained the Afternoon Bridge Club on in Maryland. Mrs. A. B. Lacy will fill the place of Mrs. Gailagher in the club. Invitation to luncheon was accepted from Mrs. Anson Tracy for May 21, at her home, Penrose, Arlington, Va.

PERSONALS.

Elizabeth Farber, of the Portsmouth, left Davis, in P street, leave this evening for Wednesday for Chicago, Ill., where they the South, where they will join Mr. will be the guests of relatives for sev-recent visitor to the city. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bensinger have returned from a visit to Atlantic City. Mrs. William Garner returned to her home in Newport News on Friday, after a ten days' visit to relatives in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kosminsky and littel son, Jack Lavine, spent Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Altmayer, of Macon, Ga., were guests at the New Willard for

Mrs. Simon Treitel and daughter Inez, of Woonsocket, R. I., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Woog, of T street

Mr. Julius S. Keyser, of Indianapolis, Ind., was the guest of friends for a short

Mr. Baker has conducted for the government some important cases, and is an esteemed member of the District of Co-week in the city, guests of the New Will-

Mr. Melvin Rich, who has been located in Toledo, Ohio, for the past few years,

Mrs. Julia Luchs, of the Sterling, left during the week for Philadelphia, where she will remain throughout the summer.

Mrs. Louis Keenigsburg, of New York, ho has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles Kaufman, of Eighteenth street, returned home on Friday.

Mrs. Sol Rice and daughter, Miss Jennie's Rice, of Chicago, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. W. Nordlinger, of 3032 H street David Agnew Greenlees, Mrs. Phillip northwest, and will be at home to-day. Mr. Sidney Franc, of New York, spent

Henry Franc, of Fifth street. Mrs. Harry M. Kaufman has returned from a visit to Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Mose Gross, of Columbia road, is the guest of relatives in Philadelphia,

Mr. Gerson Nordlinger is in New York

Mrs. Joseph Schoenagle, of Camden, N. J., is visiting her mother, Mrs. L. Gold-

Mr. Monroe Hollander is in Oakland,

Md., for a lengthy visit.

Mr. W. C. Alexander, of Philadelphia, was a recent visitor to the city.

GEORGETOWN SOCIETY.

Mrs. Zola Green, of Chicago, is visiting her sister-in-law, Miss Nancy Green, of Mr. Leonard Nicholson, who made in Dumbarton avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Albion Keith Parris have gone to White Sulphur Springs, Va., for James Townsley Worthington, of Philadelphia, spent Saturday and Sanday of Miller, 15; last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Herron, 48.

cently moved into the little colonial house

Mrs. R. T. Worthington,

they have built in Q street. B. Oldrin Salter, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Salter, at the Kanawha, has gone to New York for several weeks, before returning

Mr. Worden Parris has gone to Texas, where he has accepted a responsible position in the Forestry Service.

to his home in Rugby, England.

Md., is a guest of Miss Agnes Harvey. Oden Bowie Roberts is in New York for Heights, has invitations out for a card the week-end. the week-end.

Miss Lieze Godwin has returned from a trip to West Point, where she has been large bridge party of six tables Thurs visiting with the Misses Dunwoody. day afternoon, at her home, on O and Miss Addis Hubert expects to leave will spend a month visiting friends. guests of honor at a dinner on Friday white lace trimmings, and carried yellow evening by Representative and Mrs. Vic- roses. Mrs. Busbey was in black lace elected president of the new "Society of surpassed. Hired reasonably. 1620 L st.

Monday for Rye, Long Island, where she which is composed of men and women Only presidents of the different colonial organizations who are eligible are to be

Steven Lorando, a Georgetown University graduate, spent several days here

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Zeller and their little SOLD DIRECT son are the guests of Mr. Zeller's aunts, Mrs. E. A. Whelan and Miss Zeller, in P

Mrs. Neal Leary and her little daughter, Miss Ruth Clarke Leary, who have been spending a few months with Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Pack and Miss Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William the guests of Mrs. Johns at the Stoddard Mass. A big stock, embracing all the latest models

Miss Geline Macdonald, of Richmond, gave an informal song recital, Thursday Webster Piano is exceptionally durable is attested Reuben Harris, who spent the past month with Mrs. R. Harris, of the Oakland, returned to New 10rk on Friday.

Mebser Piano is exceptionally durable is attested by the fact that it is the instrument used in many of the public schools and leading colleges through-Academy, in Massachusetts avenue, and out the country, where a piano is expected to stand Mrs. L. Gumbriner, of New York, was a has a fine voice.

> Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass have recently moved into their new home, 3027 P factory prices and give purchasers the benefit of street. Mr. Douglass is engineer of paying for a piano in an easy and convenient manoridges of the District of Columbia.

Miss Margaret Chew, of Charlestown,

Mrs. Booth Bouic, of Fairview, Prince George County, Md., who has been visitng her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Williams, in Thirty-first street, has re-

Commander and Mrs. Thomas W. Kinaid, U. S. N., have given up their home n Philadelphia, and have moved to the Norfolk Navy Yard, where Commander Kincaid is stationed for duty. Mrs. Kinaid was formerly Miss Virginia Cassin,

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Wood have gone Atlantic City for about two weeks.

Mrs. Andrew Bruin, of Ottawa, Ohio, is staying in Georgetown for about a month.

Dr. and Mrs. T. Edwin Ridgway gave an informal supper last Sunday evening at the Kanawha in honor of Miss Geline Macdonald, of Richmond. The guests included Miss S. Tonita Ridgway, Miss Macdonald, Mr. James Townsley Worthington, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Howard V. Willett, of Livingston Heights, Va.

In spite of the rainy weather, the Tuesnight dance at the Dumbarton Club was largely attended. Among Georgetown and Washington people present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Looker, Mr. and Mrs. Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Casey, Berry, Miss Margaret Easterday, Miss Julia Lippett, Miss Fry, Miss Marion Parker, Miss Darby, Miss Towers, Miss the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Miss White, Miss Harvey, Fred Kleinschmidt, Mr. John Lane Johns, Mr. Cobb, Mr. Charles Bolmar Cheynos, Mr. Ernest Mechlin, Mr. Randolph C. Carrington, Mr. John Ecker, Mr. Lloyd Carrington, Babert Beal, Mr. Ballinger, Mr. Harry Crist, Mr. Billie Naylor, Mr. Leonard Nicholson, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Oden Bowie Roberts, Mr. Frank Green Capt, Hussin, Dr. Henry Cook, Mr. Rawlins Hume, Mr. S. Walker, Mr. John Ed-wards, Mr. C. Walker, and Mr. Norwood.

> Mrs. Louis Mackall gave a large card party last week at her home, Thirty-first and O streets. This was the first a series that Mrs. Mackall expects to

> The third of a series of matches between the pool teams of the Dumbarton Club and the Evening Star Club was play ed at the Dumbarton Club house last Tuesday night, and was won by the home team by a score of 358 to 301 balls. The feature of the evening was the playing

> The individual scores were as follows Dumbarton Club-Greenlees, 50; Beale, 50; Anderson, 50; Cock, 28; Ballinger, 50; Edwards, 30; Looker, 50, and Nicholson, 50. Evening Star Club-Collins, 44; S Walker, 29; C. Walker, 30; McCarthy, 50 Miller, 15; Jester, 50; Norwood, 35, and

Among those who witnessed the tourna-Mrs. W. H. Robb is spending a week in Herndon, Va., visiting friends.

Mrs. James F. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Walker, Mrs. David Agnew Greenlees, Mrs. William Looker, Mrs. Phillip Berry, Mrs. William Looker, Mrs. Victor Feber nent were Mr. and Mrs. Boyle, Mr. and Mr. John Lane Johns, Mr. John Capt. Hussin, Mr. Randolph C. Carrington, Mr. Fred Kleinschmidt, Mr. Frank Green, Mr. Oden Bowie Roberts, Mr. Lloyd Smoot, Mr. Charles B. Cheyney, Mr. Harry Crist, Mr. Rawlins Hume, Mr. Ernest Mechlin, Mr. Billie Naylor, and 723 14th St. N. W. Trial Lessons Free. Mr. Cobb.

Miss Nancy Green and her aunt, Mrs. Norton, of Rosedale, attended the reception given by the Colonial Dames, Thursday evening. Miss Green wore a gown of Miss Sara Penning, of Havre de Grace, pink satin and old lace.

Mrs. Charles G. Worden, of Georgetown

Mrs. Louis Mackall was hostess at a day afternoon, at her home, on O and

The Success of a Wedding

Continued on Page 3, Column 4.

ALL SOULS' CHURCH, cor. 14th and L sta. Ulysses G. B. Pierce, minister. 6:45 a. m., Sunday school, Class for the Comparative Study of Religion, and Unity Study Class. 11 s. m., molning service; sermon by the minister, 7:30 p. m., Young People's Religious Union. The public invited to all services.

Musical Merits.

An Instrument of Exceptional Artistic and

The F. G. Smith Piano Co., 1225 Pennsylvania Avenue.

The quest for a piano of marked durability, as well as one that is artistic in appearance and worthy Piano. This instrument is built by the F. G. Smith Gen. and Mrs. Charles Greenleaf are Piano Company in its large factory in Leominster, both in Webster Uprights and the new Webster Player-Pianes, is exhibited in the Company's warerooms, at 1225 Pennsylvania avenue. That the In selling the Webster Piano direct, the F. G.

Smith Piano Company are enabled to quote actual ner. It will prove worth your while to visit the varerooms at 1225 Pennsylvania avenue any day or W. Va., is visiting the Misses Lippett, in evening and view the new Webster Pianos and

> The Transposing Adjustment of the

APOLLO PLAYER-PIANO

Enables one to use the "Apol-10" as an accompaniment to voice or piano.

Apollo Player-Piano Gets away from the mechanical and makes playing artistic. Let Us Show You. E.DROOP & Sons Co.

923-25 Penna. Ave.

THOMPSON'S Insect Powder

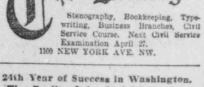

is the most reliable bug exterminator. Use it when you clean house.

10c, 15c, 25c, and 50c can.

* Thompson Pharmacy Frank C. Henry, Prop. 703 15th.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES, STRAYER'S BUSINESS COLLEGE. "A GOOD SCHOOL"

The Berlitz School of Languages Grand Prizes, St. Louis, '04; Liege, '05, French, German, Spanish, &c., Native Teachers.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

UNITARIAN.

OSCAR FRANKLIN COMSTOCK, CHURCH NOTICE.